

Greenyard publishes its Annual Report 24/25

Sint-Katelijne-Waver, Belgium, 18 June 2025

Following Greenyard's earlier announcement on its financial results FY24/25 on 21 May, the Group today publishes its full Annual Report. The integrated report is introduced by Founder and Executive Director Hein Deprez' vision for the future of food, and Greenyard's role within the necessary diet shift, alongside a review of the past year from Chief Executive Officer, Francis Kint.

The financial statements also include an introduction from Chief Financial Officer Nicolas De Clercq, following the sustainability statements that provide extensive details on Greenyard's sustainability efforts and results.

Furthermore, the Annual Report also contains various examples of how Greenyard deployed its Strategy 2030 over the past year, detailed across four main areas:

- Connecting the food value chain. A deep-dive with tangible examples in Greenyard's unique demand-driven business model.
- Advancing our infrastructure. Examples of how Greenyard's operational capabilities support the development of future pure-plant food experiences.
- Innovating for a healthier future. A view on Greenyard's innovation strategy, enabled by collaborating with customers and aimed at providing consumers nutritious, accessible, convenient and tasty foods.
- People are the driving force behind our company. The company thrives on its close collaborations at both ends of the food supply chain, made possible by almost 8 600 global colleagues that are driven by the shared purpose: to improve life.
